

Programme

09.00 Registration opens: tea & coffee served

09.30 - 11.30 Session 1: Setting the scene

Welcome from Event Chair: Nicola Marshall, Active Travel Programme Director, South Yorkshire Mayoral Combined Authority (SYMCA)

The Big Picture: Vision for active travel across SYMCA

Ed Clancy, Active Travel Commissioner, SYMCA

The Big Picture: Vision for active travel across England

Danny Williams, CEO, Active Travel England
Chris Boardman, National Commissioner,
Active Travel England (video address)

Followed by panel and audience Q & A

10.30 - 11.00 Who are we designing for? Hearing from our local communities, followed by panel and audience Q & A

11:00 Morning break: tea & coffee served

11:30 - 12.45 Session 2: Places that work for children work for everyone

Tim Gill, independent scholar, consultant and global advocate for child-friendly cities and UK Play Safety Forum

Dr Ayse Ozbil Torun, Associate Professor, Architecture and Built Environment, Northumbria University

Helen Forman, Urban Design Manager, West Yorkshire Combined Authority

Ali Campion, School Streets Co-ordinator, Sustrans North

Panel and audience Q and A

12.45 - 13.30 Networking lunch

13.30 - 14.00 Session 3: Why great design so important? Design Standards (LTN 1/20) and ATE's support role

Creating great walking, wheeling and cycling 'hardware'
Tom Holcroft, Senior Inspector, Active Travel England

14.00 Delegates move to 3 x 30 min workshops

1. Pedestrian crossings: Sally Fletcher, Transport for Greater Manchester and Anna Butler, South Yorkshire Mayoral Combined Authority
2. Continuous footways and side road zebras: tbc
3. Pavement parking and accessible footways: Caroline Strickland, CEO, Transport for All
4. Major junctions: Richard Butler, Engineering Manager, Transport for Greater Manchester
5. Reallocating Green time from traffic to active travel modes: Korak van Tuyl, Principal Engineer – Traffic Control, Transport for London Engineering
6. Inclusive design: Kate Ball, Wheels for Wellbeing
7. Community engagement: Natalie Gravett Foyn, Arup and Martin Hughes, Head of Neighbourhoods, Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council
8. Planning: Mark Knighting, Head of Development Management, Active Travel England

15.30 Afternoon break: tea & coffee served

15.45 - 16.45 Session 4: Helping our residents think differently

Pete Dyson, University of Bath, and co-author, Transport for Humans

Further speakers to be announced

Panel and audience Q and A

16.45 Summing up

Ed Clancy, Active Travel Commissioner, SYMCA

17.00 Conference close